yes!!!! we need the green men in T.O.! Will they be at the next canucks game???

with 15 minutes remaining in the game superfans.ca projects another victory for canucks over oilers, thanks to the green spandex superhero's at gm place. edmonton is not used to that kind of super awesome lime green karma. they never had a chance.

We're very pleased that vancouverites are enjoying the spandex Green Men. It's been very exciting for the canucks fans and the NHL.

However I'm not sure that we can allow the green guys to remain in vancouver long term as there are a number of factors at play and we've been asked to review the situation from a competitive standpoint and perhaps we may be tilting the playing field in favour of the Canucks and may need to consider moving the green men to some of the other markets like phoenix, or tampa bay, or nashville. these are all important markets who could also benefit from having green spandex superhero's.

turned on the game against san jose last night, in the first period the Canucks were WINNING 2-0, but the sharks came back and vancouver needed the shootout to get the victory. Goalie cory schneider made 44 stops and all 3 in the shootout to be the WINNING goalie. i think he may have tiger blood in his viens.

look Charlie i'm glad you've found some of these hockey fans to hang around with, my first concern is for your well being you know that man. Now Vancouver that's a beautiful city, nice people but government is nwo. bottom line. side issue - look green spandex guys - i don't have time to watch hockey myself. I'm pretty busy fightin the new world order. and I know, the vancouver's canooks are gonna have a good chance to win the winston cup or whatever ya'll play for.great.wonderful. can you just take time out you canadians, just stop watchin hockey for 5 minutes you need to go to infowars.com and prisonplanet.com to get the information that mainstream media is not giving you.

Re:Lime Green Canucks Fan New Vancouver Star!

Posted by the stick - 2011/03/28 23:16

well real alex i just checked the mainstream media and they are reporting the hockey scores correctly. that is all i care about hockey and winning the stanley cup. not conspiracys or space aliens.
hopefully you can watch the game over at charlies house the next time you are over there "working out" with him LOL!!!!IN THE MEANTIME we are getting ready for the playoffs and the canucks and the green men running to the cup.
you really should come up to vancouver for the playoffs real alex!

well I guess the green men had the night off for the oilers loss. thank god the canucks hired sarah kustok's favorite announcer tim donovan and his LIME GREEN TIE to host the fountain tire 4 for 3 challenge.the donovan ROCKED the rogers!!

Re:Lime Green Canucks Fan New Vancouver Star!

Posted by the stick - 2011/04/10 04:18

yes kyle as a season ticket holder i can tell you that was the best announcing i have heard at a canucks game in a long time. mr tim donovan takes it to a whole new level for the canucks. before i forget remember the canucks must wear thier "stick" logo jersey as often as possible if they want to win the cup. oh yes, and the calgary flames really do suck!

green men can't help the Canucks this year in goal. Roberto Luongo has been getting beat worse than Shia Labeouf on Granville Street.

alright even I saw the score came up on ESPN in the infowars studio tonight, I think maybe Dew, or Jarren flipped the channel for a second and I saw the canucks lost to the wild 5-1 hope that's not too upsetting for you charliessheen. you know on halloween i saw they were doing TSA style pat downs on the hockey fans in vancouver outside the came. they were patting down a guy in a gorilla suit. yeah,you like to get groped when you go into the hockey game? well get used to it. side issue.well look if you hockey fans have not donated to the infowars money bomb please do that. help us get the info out to people. And I've decided I'm gonna come on here more often and maybe we'll get aaron dykes to do some updates to wake up some of you hockey people to what the new world order is doing to you in vancouver.infowars.com prisonplanet.com my teams are the oilers and the flames, but after losing to vancouver calgary is out and I have no team to cheer for... so I must ask the green men... can I join your canucks green nation? yes I think I will. it's time Alberta finally supports the west coast for the cup. bring it home van looked to me like the green men were sitting on thier hands most of the night. could the kings have gotten inside their green heads? I kept waiting for some green antics but got nothing. if that lunthead willie mitchell was doing the WOOOOH! after the game. anyway my tickets are very very expensive and I deserve better. losing 2 games at home to the kings? the canucks have never come back from 2 games down in history. signed: off the bandwagon til next year loyal vancouver fan. better step up your game green guys!

Re:Lime Green Canucks Fan New Vancouver Star!

I agree with you about the green guys being ineffective against the kings, but their is a good reason for that it's because Los Angeles is full of flakes 24/7 and the kings are used to seeing weirdos everywhere in LA so the green guys just look normal to them. the music at rogers centre could be improved as well. still holding out hope for a comeback..... down 3 games... it could stillhappen...hope henrick sedin is going to be ok.....
