there was a huge pop in fayetteville when Sting won the match over jeff as the creatures of the night were reeling from the shock of hardy losing the belt while the longtime TNA fans were celebrating seeing a dream title change live in person. this really was like back in the day when title changes would happen in unexpected cities like fayetteville. but believe me the building was rocking and this was one of the best title change matches in TNA history. congrats all the way around at TNA tonight! great hospitality at the hampton inn in fayetteville as well.

sting kept the belt from rvd and anderson at tna lockdown. stinger pinned mr anderson after a scorpion deathdrop. the big showdown is now shaping up as sting has challenged hogan to a match for the belt. they need to ride the buildup for this sting/hogan in everything they do to really get this match over. bischoff needs to re-establish hogan's greatness over the years to prepare the fans for this ultimate heavyweight battle for the ages. it's all there for you eric -do it up right!!!

the stinger got beat by bobby roode at victory road but now he has returned to action and will be main eventing in tna. will sting play a role in helping james storm win the belt at lockdown in nashville. could sting bring the baseball bat back for the summer. hogan has taken over sting's duties as gm
